2. Approval of Meeting Minutes
Moved by Andrew Krenz to approve the minutes of the regular meeting held on November 14. Seconded by Cyndy Jankowski. Motion passed.
3. Program Report – Director Prevo

Four Wellness Wednesday programs were held in November with over 50 participants. Also, three sessions of Teen Talk and three sessions of Project Respect were held for 20 middle and high school participants.

Director Prevo co- chaired the monthly meeting of Northville CARES where program plans were discussed for the second semester and the future plans that Northville Public Schools is exploring to provide comprehensive wellness supportive services district wide.

Also, together with Beth Santer from Northville Public Schools, Amy presented a breakout session titled Working Stronger Together: School and community partnerships to enhance mental health awareness and support at the Wayne County Suicide Prevention Coalition annual conference to an audience of more than 30 school personnel from across Wayne County.

NYN will be the benefactor of a spring fundraiser held by a group of Winchester parents. The group is hosting their annual “Mom Prom” in April of 2024 and will donate all proceeds to support NYN programs and services.

Meeting held with the new Meads Mill Middle School SRO Officer McFadden to introduce NYN and share with him how we can support the work he does with students.

Celebrated Northville Township being named a 2023 Detroit Free Press Top Workplace.
