Van Gogh and Monet Visit the Township with the DIA's Assistance

The beautification of Northville Township got a boost from Vincent Van Gogh and Claude Monet when the Detroit Institute of Arts (DIA) chose Northville Township for the first time ever to host its coveted Inside | Out art program.

Four full-sized framed high-quality reproductions from the DIA's permanent collection were installed outdoors May 22 at venues throughout Northville Township. A fifth painting was erected earlier in May at the Northville Community Center, home to Northville Senior Services, in the City of Northville.
